

Day 1

First Official Day of Activities August 1, 2010 (Sunday)

Check in at the fairgrounds (north side of Thermopolis, on the west side of Hwy 20 to Worland), pick up a registration packet, and your horse will be assigned a place on the picket lines. You are responsible for your own accommodations.

4:00pm—Orientation Meeting:

Scheduled to be held at the Rodeo Grounds in the OTR designated section. This meeting will include introduction of the Outlaw Trail Ride committee members, and a brief history of the Outlaw Trail Ride organization. We will review rules and regulations and you will meet your group leaders and fellow riders.

General information concerning the ride will be provided and discussed. There will be souvenirs to buy and an opportunity to sign up for the poker run that takes place during the ride.

5:30pm—Supper:

Following the orientation, there will be an evening meal for all riders. Its time to start getting acquainted, relax and enjoy Thermopolis.

*See you in the morning.
Be prepared for a ride that will be an adventure of a lifetime.*
